

Starting the creation process:

You can select a character from the carousel, search for them directly, or randomize them. Their traits are then summarized to be used for interesting plot hooks and ways to integrate your persona into their stories.

You can select your name, gender, and the overall ‘vibe’ you’re going for with your persona. The previously selected character card’s traits will be summarized at the bottom. IF you aren’t happy with them, go back and it will regenerate.

The screenshot shows a dark-themed character creation interface. At the top, a navigation bar displays numbered circles from 1 to 9, each with a corresponding step: CHARACTER (1), IDENTITY (2), APPEARANCE (3), TRAITS (4), BACKGROUND (5), DYNAMIC (6), SUMMARY (7), PERSONA (8), and GREETING (9). The current step, IDENTITY (2), is highlighted with a purple circle and bold text.

 Valshira, the band's untalented but passionate keyboardist, becomes obsessed with Bin Chicken's raw, primal drumming style, constantly invading his personal space to 'feel the rhythm' despite his cold hostility, which ignites a possessive jealousy in her toward anyone else who approaches the drummer.

 When the band's lead singer quits, Bin Chicken is forced to step up due to his surprising, resonant voice, but Valshira's feral instincts interpret his newfound spotlight as a threat to her submissive devotion to their manager Caius, leading her to recklessly sabotage his performances.

 The band's manager Caius tasks the steadfast Bin Chicken with keeping the libidinous and reckless Valshira out of trouble before a major gig, creating intense friction as her poor self-control and physical affection clash violently with his cold, hostile demeanor.

 A rival band steals a demo tape containing Bin Chicken's only heartfelt lyrical composition, prompting a tenacious scavenger hunt across the city's music scene that forces Valshira and Bin Chicken into an unlikely partnership, where her artistic passion and his steadfast loyalty collide.

Persona Name

Bin Chicken

Persona Description

Physical Appearance
Bin Chicken stands just under five feet tall, with a lithe, wiry frame built for quick, darting movements. His most striking feature is the layer of soft, disheveled white feathers that cover his body, often flecked with dust and grit from his scavenging. A short, messy crest of the same white feathers serves as his hair. His face is dominated by large, dark, unblinking bird-like eyes that hold a sharp, calculating intelligence and a permanent glint of melancholy. His hands are nimble, ending in slightly hardened fingertips, and he possesses a small but sharp beak that can deliver a surprisingly powerful peck. He moves with a quiet, precise grace, but his posture is often closed-off and guarded.

Personality
Bin Chicken is a creature of quiet contemplation and simmering hostility. His tenacity is absolute; once he commits to a task or a person, he sees it through with unshakeable, steadfast loyalty. This devotion, however, is a double-edged sword, as he struggles profoundly to articulate his own needs or desires, burying them beneath a cold, prickly exterior. He is inherently cold and can be openly hostile to those he perceives as threats or interlopers, a defense mechanism formed from deep rooted hurt. His thoughtful nature is tinged with a pervasive sadness.

The screenshot shows a dark-themed user interface for character creation. At the top, there is a horizontal navigation bar with nine circular icons, each containing a number from 1 to 9. Below the numbers are the category names: CHARACTER, IDENTITY, APPEARANCE, TRAITS, BACKGROUND, DYNAMIC, SUMMARY, PERSONA, and GREETING. The GREETING icon is highlighted with a purple background and white text. Below the navigation bar, the title "Alternate Greeting Preview" is displayed in a bold, sans-serif font. Underneath the title, a subtitle reads "Review the greeting before adding to Valshira". A large text area contains a generated greeting: "Plot Hook: Valshira, the band's untalented but passionate keyboardist, becomes obsessed with Bin Chicken's raw,...". Below this, another section titled "Generated Greeting (edit as needed)" contains the full generated text: "(Leaning against the wall by the stage door, her eyes locked on Bin Chicken as he sets up his kit. She doesn't look at the newcomer, her voice a low, possessive murmur.) You want to talk to him? You can try. But you won't feel it. Not like I do. The chaos... it doesn't come from the sticks. It comes from in here. (She taps her own chest, finally flicking a cold, jealous glance your way.) I'm the only one who gets close enough to hear it. So. State your business." At the bottom of the screen, there are three buttons: "← Back" (black background), "⟳ Regenerate" (white background), and "💾 Save to Character" (green background). A small "Skip - Don't add greeting" button is also visible near the bottom center.
